October 18 - Pittsburg, Kansas - The Black Student Movement, Kansas State College, may demonstrate at College homecoming ceremonies. The theme of the demonstration will be "Burn Baby Burn." School authorities are considering suspending the Movement's charter due to its prior disruptive demonstrations.

October 18 & 19      #Oakland, California - The Red Guard will conduct a conference with all Chinese students at Merritt College, Oakland, California. No further information at this time.

October 20      New York City - Veterans for Peace and the SWP plan to demonstrate at New York City during President Nixon's scheduled visit there.

October 21      International - The General Council of Trade Unions of Japan (Sohyo) sent an appeal last month to major labor unions in the U.S., Britain, France, West Germany, the Soviet Union, and East Germany, calling for October 21 to be made the day of international united action opposing U.S. imperialist aggression in Vietnam. The appeal states that the Japanese workers on this day will stage a nationwide demonstration and at the time of Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's visit to Washington in November will organize a strike.

From another source it was reported that the SDS National Office was contacted on October 8 by a representative of the Japanese Communist League who stated that the Japanese Communist League and the Socialist Students League of Japan were supporting the Chicago demonstrations. He also stated that on October 21 or 22, Japanese "Leftists" will rise in armed struggle against United States imperialism which will coincide with the visit of the premier of Japan to the United States. This individual gave no specific information concerning this activity.

October 22      #Chicago, Illinois - The Illinois Black Panther Party plans to demonstrate at the Federal Courthouse, Chicago on 22 October. This attempt to have its members admitted to the courtroom, October 22 is the birthday of Bobby Seale, National Chairman of the BPP who is under indictment.

October 25      Chicago, Illinois - The New Mobilization Committee is sponsoring actions in Chicago in support of the "Chicago Eight" and calling for an end to the war in Vietnam. A guerrilla theater march down State Street, a tribunal dealing with political repression, and a rock concert are planned. The march and rally are to focus on the war and alleged government repression of peace-movement leaders.

October 20

Chicago, Illinois - The Committee to End the War in Vietnam has announced that it will hold a rally, place and time unknown. Main speaker will be Dr. Benjamin Spock with Peter, Paul, and Mary as guest singers.

November 3

Chicago, Illinois - Arrested September 3 at the University of Illinois where, as leaders of a community coalition, they were demonstrating for more jobs for minorities in the construction industry were: Rev. Jesse Jackson (SCLC); Lawrence Peterson (Conservative Vice-Lords); Robert Weatherford (Black Disciple); and Leonard DeBengali (Black Peace Stone Nation). Trial has been set for 3 November.

November 3

National - The Chicago Eight is now trying to add a national strike of law students with a theme of "Stop the Trial" to its continuing array of protest and propaganda.

November 3

New York City and Nationally - On 7 October a group of black intellectuals and activists in New York City called for a city-wide work stoppage by black workers as a display of unity among the majority of Negroes - a "Black Solidarity Day." Although called for New York City, the planners said other blacks are working toward similar goals of unity in Detroit, Cleveland, Los Angeles and Chicago. The purpose of the demonstrations is to show black opposition to "the growing conservatism" among U.S. whites. "This test of Solidarity Day will call on the majority of blacks not involved (with black activism) to show their anger in a creatively disruptive way."

November 6

New Bedford, Massachusetts - The Regional Action Group, believed to be an SDS sponsored group, is planning an anti-war demonstration. Thursdays are traditionally known as a "night on the town" when vandalism and arrests are prevalent.

November 8

Boston, Massachusetts - A Boston anti-imperialist coalition will hold a demonstration to support the MLP and demand immediate withdrawal from Vietnam. It will be the culmination of a week of anti-imperialist demonstrations against a variety of targets. It will bring together high school and college students and working people.

November 8-15

National - Planned to be a week of local activity around the war and U. S. Imperialism, to build on-going local organizations and to help mobilize for November 15th in Washington and San Francisco. The goal is to plan activity appealing to wide variety of constituencies and political styles. Initiated by the Joe Hill Caucus of SDS at San Francisco State and endorsed by the RYM II national SDS faction. A prime aim is for campus protests. The NMC co-chairman, Sidney Peek has indicated that NMC hopes the actions take place.

November 8

Nationally - SDS has said that as a follow-up to the 11 October action in Chicago, regional demonstrations will be held throughout the country to make it clear that SDS will not be tricked by "phony bombing halts or troop withdrawals or any games played by liberal politicians." SDS says, "We will not be turned around."

November 9

National - On 14 October, the House passed and sent to the Senate a resolution designating 9 November as a national day of prayer and concern for Americans held prisoner by the North Vietnamese.

November 9

Los Angeles, California - The Teachers' Council for Peace in Vietnam is sponsoring a mass march and rally on November 9 with the aim of initiating "dramatic peace events - carefully planned so as to broaden the peace movement's popular appeal." The projected march and demonstration has the support of the Peace Action Council, umbrella coordinating agency for virtually all the peace organizations in the area. A speaker for the Teachers Council stated that "the peace rally will not be an anti-climax to the teachers' march. On the contrary, we are hoping for the largest anti-war rally ever held in Los Angeles." Daily World 9-17

November 12

Detroit, Michigan - Robert F. Williams, militant black, who recently returned to the U. S. A. after eight years of exile in Cuba, China, and Tanzania, was freed on personal bonds after two appearances in Detroit Courts within hours after his return. Williams is fighting extradition to North Carolina where he is wanted on a kidnapping charge. An extradition hearing is set for November 12. Daily World 9-17

Part of the effort to increase GI resistance to the Vietnam War, the Conference will consider proposals including: "The guarantee of freedom of speech for GI's, freedom of the press and assembly, due process; etc., to servicemen and legislation to enforce the prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment by the officers' caste and their agents." The American Servicemen's Union has asked organized labor to support the GI movement.

November 15

*Berkeley, California - A confidential source has advised that the extremist Black Panther Party plans to hold a benefit in the Berkeley, California, area on or about 15 November 1969. The purpose of the benefit is to raise money to be used as a legal defense fund for arrested leaders and members of the BPP, including its chairman Bobby Seale. The BPP plans to have well-known personalities and entertainers to participate in the benefit, including professional entertainer and civil rights activist Dick Gregory, and the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Reportedly, the BPP recently received word that Abernathy is willing to help and is waiting to be contacted by a representative of the BPP.

November 18

*Washington, D. C. - The appearance of black militant Robert F. Williams before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee scheduled for 30 September was postponed until 18 November, according to Conrad Lynn, one of Williams' lawyers.
